

Lee County Tobacco Festival
Chile Pepper Eating Contest Sponsored by A Better Burger
Registration Form and Liability Waiver

Name _____ Age _____ (must be 18 or over)

Address _____

Phone number: _____

Registration Fee $5 to be paid at time of contest (proceeds donated to charity)

Rules: The contest will include several heat levels of chile peppers. The first pepper shall be jalapenos. All contestants must consume each level of pepper before the contest will continue to the next level. Once a level is completed, the contestants may continue to the next level, or drop out of the contest. Drinks will be provided to contestants once they decide not to continue the contest. No drinks will be allowed for contestants still competing. Each contest level shall increase in heat. The final level of pepper will be the Carolina Reaper, the world's hottest pepper. There will only be one winner. If more than one contestant completes all levels, they will continue to eat the reaper peppers until only one contestant is left.

Hazards and Liability Waiver

Consuming hot peppers may be hazardous to your health. These complications may include: sweating, blisters of the mouth and face, swelling of the face, redness, stomach pains, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, heart palpitations, chest pains, and in extreme cases heart attack or death. By signing this waiver, I release A Better Burger, its owners, the town of Pennington Gap and The Friends of The Lee County Festival from any and all liability resulting from the contest. I will be responsible for any medical expenses I may incur as a result. I understand the hazards and have decided to compete at my own risk. EMT personnel will be on hand.
